

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOUG RAMSEY ELECTED IASA 2023-2024 BOARD CHAIR

DURHAM, NC (June 26, 2023) – IASA’s membership recently elected its new Board of Directors for the 2023-2024 term, voting Doug Ramsey, VP Technology for Travelers, as Board Chair. A long-term IASA volunteer, Doug has served IASA for nearly 10 years in various roles, including education, technology, and professional development.

In his volunteer role as Board Chair, Doug will guide the association, in close partnership with CEO Kerry Crockett and the entire Board of Directors, through a year of aggressive growth and positive change driven by IASA’s business and strategic plans. Top priorities for the 2023-2024 year include the continued expansion of IASA’s educational and relationship-building opportunities into new segments of the insurance industry through industry collaborations, increasing its member and attendee base, and increasing brand awareness of IASA by demonstrating the intrinsic value of the association and its impact on the industry to members and other stakeholders.

In his current professional role at Travelers, Doug is responsible for leading cloud enablement and adoption across Travelers business and technology organizations. He holds a B.S. in Computer Science from Providence College and an M.S. in Software Development and Management from Rochester Institute of Technology.

“I’m thrilled and honored to embark on a new chapter with IASA, serving as IASA Board Chair,” stated Doug. “As the newly elected board chair of the IASA, I am committed to IASA’s mission as an insurance education non-profit – fostering collaboration, innovation, and member-centricity within our association. Together, we will navigate the evolving business landscape, embrace emerging technology trends, and ensure that the association continues to be the trusted source of knowledge, credible collaboration, and common business interests, that drives industry execution and innovation.”

Doug’s term continues through June 30, 2024.
