IASA Membership Category Descriptions	Small Company membership is available to sole proprietors, partnerships, or other organizations with less than 25 million dollars in annual revenue and no more than three employees (company affiliates).	Regular Company membership is established on a legal entity and location basis. Individuals linked to a standard company member at a common location; qualify for IASA member status and benefits, and companies can enroll as many of their staff (company affiliates) as they choose.	Holding Company membership includes all affiliated legal entities and regional offices. All individuals linked to a holding company member or affiliated subsidiary company qualify for IASA member status and benefits. Companies can enroll as many of their staff (company affiliates) as they choose.	Affiliate members are established insurance professionals with more than ten years of experience employed by a nonmember insurance carrier or solutions company.	Early Career members are insurance professionals with less than ten years of work experience employed by a nonmember insurance carrier or solutions company. Applicants must provide a CV as proof of career level for this reduced membership category.	The Emeritus member category is for individuals who are fully retired (either from a current member company or a nonmember company) and over 65. This category allows these professionals to stay involved as volunteers and to get member rates for programs and events.	Student members are individuals currently enrolled in a relevant graduate or undergraduate program. Applicants must provide an unofficial transcript.
