TERRY OLEJNIK ELECTED IASA 2024–2025 ADVISORY BOARD CHAIR

TIMBERLAKE, NC (June 10, 2024) – IASA’s membership recently elected its new Advisory Board for the 2024–2025 term, voting Terry Olejnik, CPA, Assurance Partner, Plante Moran, as Advisory Board Chair. As a long-time IASA volunteer, Terry has served IASA for nearly 10 years in various roles, including education, technology, professional development, and volunteer development.

In her role at Plante Moran, Terry provides assurance, tax, and consulting assistance to property, casualty, and health insurers along with self-insurance pools and domestic- and foreign-domiciled captive insurance companies. She holds a B.B.A. with a concentration in accounting from the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

In her new role as IASA Advisory Board Chair, Terry will guide the association in close partnership with IASA’s Executive Director, Kim Nicholl-Keane, and the entire Advisory Board, through a year of growth and development powered by IASA’s strategic plans. Top priorities for the 2024–2025 year include improving awareness and communication of IASA’s membership benefits, increasing IASA’s attendee, member, and volunteer base, and the continued expansion of IASA’s educational offerings.

“I am honored and excited to take on this new chapter with IASA, serving as the Advisory Board Chair,” stated Terry. “I am committed to IASA’s mission to serve as a trusted source of knowledge and collaboration for insurance professionals by fostering community, delivering education, and facilitating connections so that insurance companies can best serve their customers and protect policy holders.”

Terry’s term as IASA Advisory Board Chair started June 6, 2024, and continues through June 11, 2025.
