IASA OPENS CALL FOR CONTENT FOR 2026 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Malvern, Pa. (July 15, 2025) – IASA has officially opened its Call for Content for the 2026 IASA Xchange™ annual conference, taking place June 7–9, 2026, in New Orleans, La. Industry professionals are invited to submit session proposals that will shape the educational programming for the event.

IASA Xchange™ is the premier event for insurance professionals in accounting, finance, risk, and technology, offering three days of forward-thinking educational sessions, dynamic speakers, an exhibition tradeshow, and high-value networking opportunities. The 2026 event is expected to draw more than 500 attendees.

The 2026 agenda will feature 30+ breakout sessions across key focus areas, including:

- Accounting & Finance
- Enterprise Risk Management
- Professional Development
- Technology
- Executive Education

Session proposals may be submitted by those intending to present or by a colleague. Proposals should include a session title and description, 2–3 learning objectives, and at least one confirmed speaker.

Examples of high-interest topics include:

- Tax, auditing, investing, NAIC, and more
- Cybersecurity and data security
- Workforce trends and succession planning
- Specific use-cases of AI in insurance
- Geopolitical risk and economic forecasts

A full list of topics and submission requirements are available at iasa.org/proposal. The submission deadline is August 31, 2025, and speaker acceptances will be announced in Fall 2025.

"Speaking at IASA Xchange is a powerful opportunity to position yourself as a thought leader, share valuable insights, and contribute to the advancement of the insurance industry," says IASA's Executive Director, Kim Nicholl-Keane. "As the premier annual event serving a unique segment of insurance, Xchange consistently attracts a highly engaged audience eager to learn, connect, and return year after year."
